THE SECRETARY OF WAR,

In compliance with a resolution of the Senate, with reports of certain Surveys made in the State of Maine.

---

APRIL 8, 1836.—Read.

MARCH 3, 1837.—Ordered to printed.

---

IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES,

FEBRUARY 11, 1835.

On motion by Mr. Shepley, and by unanimous consent,

Resolved, That the Secretary of War be directed to cause the surveys and maps made in the State of Maine, under the direction of Colonel J. J. Abert, to be communicated to the Senate; and that he cause the maps to be reduced, if necessary, to prepare them for publication.

WAR DEPARTMENT, April 8, 1836.

SIR: I have the honor to enclose a report of the Topographical bureau relative to certain surveys in the State of Maine, prepared in answer to the resolution of the Senate of February 11, 1835.

Very respectfully,

Your obedient most servant,

LEWIS CASS.

HON. M. VAN BUREN,

---
